Code Enforcement went out Saturday night to the Brookwood Pkwy house on the report of evangelical services being held at this property. Complaints of a large group and parking issues on the street,. When the officer first arrived in the area there were 3 cars in the driveway. No cars parked in front of this house. One person was sitting on the front porch. There was no other activity at this house except one of the cars left. During his checks there were never any cars parked in front of this residence and no sign of any parking issues on the street. As far as activity at the house nothing observed. He would say there did not appear to be an company/gathering at the house.

With regards to possible shuls, the findings are as such:

1. 9 Harvest Ct - Initially 2 cars, then 2 more arrived and 3 walkers observed. No other activity. Quiet.
2. 713 Green Valley Road (vacant) - No lights, no activity all evening. No furnishings.
3. 6 Meadow Run Ct. - Initially no cars, no activity. Later 2 cars, no activity.

41 Pitney - 17 cars, 2 walkers observed. No additional cars later. Quiet.

We are wasting valuable time and money checking every complaint that comes in. We can't keep chasing ghosts. It's the same people and addresses every week. We have other more serious issues; heroin drug houses, etc. These are the issues that we need to be concentrating on. I know that the possible shuls are a serious issue but the other issues are life threatening and safety issues and are affecting many of Jackson's youth and families.

We understand that this is a sensitive issue, however, we have to address all the issues in the Township, not just this issue.

We are currently down one full-time code enforcement officer and must prioritize the complaints.

Not sure if Green Valley is active or a rumor but the Brookwood Parkway house is an active and long running issue for the neighborhood. Code went to look at it months ago I believe but it hasn't resolved.

Keep me posted and thanks.
